January, February
January came, February's over

Winter wind blows through the night bringing painful memories
Of a love that seemed so right, had me down upon my knees
I met a boy who's heart was cold, icy blood ran through his veins Ever since my heart he stole, I have never been the same

Chorus:
January came and he stepped into my world February's over, now your with another girl January came and I let you have my heart February's over and its tearing me apart

I get a chill right through my spine when I think about that day
Can't believe I was so blind, I can't believe he ran away I met a boy who's heart was stone, I never thought he'd make me cry
Now I sit here all alone as the snow falls from the sky

Chorus

I wonder why, I wonder why

Chorus (2x)
