As if we were in an old movie
We look so happy in there
At a place we don't remember, are a stranger to,
Looking for our memories

Tears fell - no
Tears are still falling
Just when I think of you, when I look at you

Even if I were to go back
Looking at you again and again
I miss you more and more
I can't forget you

I know I won't love another person
Cause I don't wanna let you go
In my memory

Just like if I was watching the main character of a movie,
Please be the person who once loved me
Unknowingly

Come back to my side
As if we were in an old movie (Thinking about it now)
Although we seemed so young then (Thinking about it again)
The place at which time stopped for me
Stopped where we were in love

I remember, yes
I remember when I sent you off
When I let you go

Even if I were to go back, even if I were to erase it,
I miss you more and more
I can't forget you

I know I won't love another person,
Cause I don't wanna let you go
In my memory

Just like if I was watching the main character of a movie,
Please be the person who once loved me
If you hear me

In the past, we were like two lovers like, romantic comedy left right on the screen, just quietly
Playback again, do you remember

We had countless kiss scenes
Missing each other while walking like two main characters babe
Walking on different roads, meeting each other coincidentally
Like a drama, even more dramatic than a drama
Come back to me, you know I need you back
You know I won't love anyone else
