Close your eyes and listen to this song
This song I sing for you
I will meet you in my dreams and tell you about my love
Having you next to me feels like a dream

When I see you smile, when I see pretty you
I fall in love more and more
I think of you before I go to bed, I close my eyes and sing of you
I want to be your dream

My only girl My only girl
My only girl My only girl
My only, My only, My only girl

I'll remember your eyes, your tears that protected me
I am running toward you every day
Are you listening to my voice? My heart toward you?
I want to be your dream

My only girl My only girl
My only girl My only girl
My only, My only, My only girl

You're my, you're my, only girl
