"Cables"

In a baobab tree
Root exposed
Capsized
Weak as a beetle

You wake me up every spring
And I unfurl
See that grin
Tell me I'm feeble
Tell me I'm alone

And I feel the Cables
That tether me
Grow weak & unstable
The earth will not keep me

I will wait in these chains
Like a bomb
Shackles
Thirsty and rusting
Crumbling and strained

And I feel the Cables
That tether me
Grow weak & unstable
The earth will not keep me

And I feel the Cables
That tether me
Grow weak & unstable
The earth will not keep me
