Pre-verse:

It's a war
It's a war for my revenge
By the pain
By the pain inside of me

Verse:

I think it's over now,
I try to shout
The hate burns through my vain,
I scream it out!

I think it's time to run,
Don't try to shout
It burns right through your veins,
And scream it out!

I think it's over now,
I try to shout
The hate burns through my vain,
I scream it out!

Chorus:

It's burning inside of me
Remember the agony
You cannot deliberate
The pain and the fear inside

Since the time you left me bleeding on the ground
Since the time you left me SCREAMING

Verse:

I think it's over now,
I try to shout
The hate burns through my vain,
I scream it out!

I think it's time to run,
Don't try to shout
It burns right through your veins,
And scream it out!

I think it's over now,
I try to shout
The hate burns through my vain,
I scream it out!

Chorus:
It's burning inside of me
Remember the agony
You cannot deliberate
The pain and the fear inside

Since the time you left me bleeding on the ground
Since the time you left me SCREAMING

Outro:
It's a dream, that's in your eyes
It's a dream, a dream of death

It's a dream, that's in your eyes
It's a dream, a dream of death
