I don't feel happy in my life
Don't wanna go to the future cause I'm just 25
But if I could I'd buy a crystal ball
I had a problem yesterday with a stupid man
I don't want him in my way
So many times we had the chance to do it right
I can't believe he tried to beat me last night

Oh no!

I'm the kinda man who lives in pain
But I will never have a needle in my veins
I say: Don't believe the politics
I say: It's a world of hypocrites
It's getting dark the sun's so far away
It seems I will never find my way
I fall asleep tomorrow is another day
I wish you'll never live like I'm living today

Oh no!

Why must I pretend it's alright
Why must I pretend I always have the strength to fight
I don't pretend I don't cry inside
Sometimes I ask if I belong here
Sometimes I feel like I wanna disappear
The most precious things in my world
Is my music and my girl

Oh no!

Hopefully I will grow up
I have the time to learn how to stand up
I hope I find my place in Paradise
Then you'll look at me and will see it in my eyes
Well, life is not always what it seems
It's not that beautiful like I see it in my dreams
Sometimes I ask if I belong here
Sometimes I feel like I want to disappear
