Awella Juliana comes and invades my mind
She walks in my dreams like a ghost to find
All over the night, then all over the day
She rides and leads the way!
Well the colour of her eyes, the beauty in her ways
Is a rainbow in the sky through the sun's rays
She lightens my life, and of course she knows
My love is wind that blows
Juliana, you are the summer of my whole life
Juliana, oh oh.
My hands in your hair, flowers everywhere
Never let October to come and dare
Put his fog and clouds on our sweet dreamboat
He gotta know we're on oath.
Awell believe me babe I'll always be
As good as an angel's heart should be
Juliana you're the only one,
You know, yeah
Juliana, you are the summer of my whole life
Juliana, oh oh.
Awell believe me babe I'll always be
As good as an angel's heart should be
Juliana you're the only one,
You know, yeah
Juliana, you are the summer of my whole life
Juliana, oh oh.
Juliana, you are the summer of my whole life
Juliana, oh oh.
