Another song is over, I wonder where you are
My faith is growing colder, always countin' on the stars
Just one last let down baby, tell me something new I'm tired and so frustrated; am I better off without you?

I don't have to wait
You're far too late, for me to stay
I won't have to cry
About your lies
The love just died
I'm gonna fly away this time

Another night forgotten, waiting for your call
Your face is slowly fading from the picture on my wall
Just one more heartbreak baby, but I never see the pain
I gave you all I had to give,
Now there's no more love to take

I don't have to wait,
You're far too late, for me to stay
Oh, I won't have to cry
About your lies
The love just died
I'm gonna fly away this time

I remember how it used to be,
Just you and me
Ah, give me time to explain
I wanna make it all okay

I, I will wait
It's not too late
For us to change

I, I will wait
It's not too late
For us to change

Oh, I don't have to cry
I look in your eyes
And I'm alright

We're gonna fly away this time.
