"Windy Days"

I know they say
That you can always find a better way
But I'm not fazed
To not get there
There I stay
Blew all the years in my own way
Own way

I know it's true
Sometimes they get the best of you
They got me too
Blamed me for the things I didn't do
So what's the use
Of staying the same when the same is the reason you lose
You lose

[Chorus]
I know they say
Like the wind, I will change
Like I care anyway
That I'm never the same
I'm different every day
It's the way that I am
It's the way I'll remain
Like the dust in the wind
I'll be gone again, whoa

So where's the light
Leave me alone, I think I'll be fine
In my own time
Cos if I need advice, don't think I'll listen to your lies
Cos you love being right
When you're wrong, you act so surprised
Surprised

Don't follow me
All that I am is all that I need to be
And with no one around, maybe then I will see
That being alone is just an empty relief
Relief

[Chorus]
I know they say
Like the wind, I will change
Like I care anyway
That I'm never the same
I'm different every day
It's the way that I am
It's the way I'll remain
Like the dust in the wind

Mmm...
Again
