Don't want to see your face no more
Tell me what the hell you're for
Your eyes screwed with my mind
It won't work out this time

I can't stand your lies and your cheap disguise
The hatred within
The hatred within
I can't stand your lies and your cheap disguise
The hatred within
The hatred within

Don't need you or anyone of your friends
Listen this is where it ends
Keep your eyes away from me
Don't need you anyway

I can't stand your lies and your cheap disguise
The hatred within
The hatred within
I can't stand your lies and your cheap disguise
The hatred within
The hatred within

Don't want to see your face no more
Tell me what the hell you're for
Your eyes screwed with my mind
It won't work out this time

I can't stand your lies and your cheap disguise
The hatred within
The hatred within
I can't stand your lies and your cheap disguise
The hatred within
The hatred within

You just don't get it you dumb fuck
