It's so cool and it's so right
To start my day 'til the end of night
With You in the thoughts, inside my mind
You are real

I'm never alone, no need to lie
Don't need to be tough, or even try
You're in my heart and I feel fine
'Cause I've got You and You are real

Jesus...

You are the Way, I follow You
You are the Truth, You're all I want
You are the Life, the one I love
Jesus, You are real

I don't want idols of any kind
Don't need my image to crowd my mind
I don't want drugs to get my high
'Cause I have You
And You are real
