Like it was before ourâ€¦
Time to be lifted to a place that I can't remember
Disconnect your mind
You won't, you won't remember

All attention to the countdown
Time slips through an hourglass
It seems to be such a perfect ending
It seems to be such a perfect ending

Thank you for what you brought out of me
And I know that I'll be with you till the end
So long, the life we lead
I'll keep you close to me
(2x)

Now it's time to be lifted to a place that I can't remember
Disconnect your mind
You won't, you won't remember
You're not a desire
You're what I need
I want you to levitate
Sing with rapture through the day for me

Thank you for what you brought out of me
And I know that I'll be with you till the end
So long, the life we lead
I'll keep you close to me
(2x)

You brush the lines
You tell it in the eyes you've stolen
And you break, and you break

You cut a million times
Cut a little bit
Now you won't forget me
Cut a million times
Cut a little bit
You won't forget me now

You won't forget me
You won't forget me

Cut a million times
Cut a little bit
You won't forget me
Cut a million times
Cut a little bit
You won't forget me, you won't forget me

Thank you for what you brought out of me
And I know that I'll be with you till the end
So long, the life we lead
I'll keep you close to me
(2x)

You brush, you brush
You cut a million times before it's done
I never liked this side of you
And you break, and you break
You tell a million times before it's done
I never liked this side of you
