"Ghosts"

The coffee is cold
I'm all out of clean clothes
And the dishes are where you left them months ago
And there is the shelf
From where all my dreams fell
The pictures you left
The books you all but stole

She said all I'm taking is what's mine
But that's my heart, I think you'll find
And I need the both of you

[Chorus:]
Are you coming home
Are you coming home
Tell me
Cause to many things remind me of our love
Too many ghosts
Are you coming home
Are you coming home
Cause there are
Too many memories of the dream I lost
Are you coming home
Cause I don't wanna live a life with ghosts

I stare at the cracks
Where the paint kinda peels back
Where you told me to fix it up a million times
So this a tomb
But much like a shrine too,
Oh all of the life
We lived before you died

You whispered take my key unlock the door
Cause I don't need it anymore
Now I am here alone

[Chorus:]
Are you coming home
Are you coming home
Tell me

Cause to many things remind me of our love
Too many ghosts
Are you coming home
Are you coming home
Cause there are
Too many memories of the dream I lost
Are you coming home
Cause I don't wanna live a life with ghosts

I don't wanna live a life without you

[Chorus:]

Are you coming home
Are you coming home
Tell me
Cause to many things remind me of our love
Too many ghosts
Are you coming home
Are you coming home
Cause there are
Too many memories of the dream I lost
Are you coming home
Cause I don't wanna live a life with ghosts
