Lillian lies
to avoid AWKWARD questions
looks to the sky
for intervention
but she cant avoid judgmental compassion in the void
puts on a face
makes it a brave
one gets herself a seat on a interstate greyhound when everythings gone at least you got nothing that holds on CURLS herself up
rests her head on the window sees her face in the trees suspended in limbo when everythings gone at least you got nothing that holds on.

You're a stranger in a country town the kids all stare
the cars slow down
you didn't think you'd be so dumb
TO JUST GRAB HOLD OF WHATEVER CAME ALONG HOUSES slip by
the clouds are solo
the sky doesn't cover
it swallows
