The summer rain is falling
Like it's never gonna stop here
It's been ages
Puddles form on city corners
Businessmen they leap between the edges

Umbrellas take up battle spots
But nature's fury always proves much stronger
And I've been sitting in my room
Wonderin' if I'm gonna last much longer

And I've been so damn sure
That I've been here before
I'll give back what I borrowed
And start today tomorrow

I've been watching over you
Watching while you're sleeping
Visions slowly come to me
Of you when you were sixteen

Standing in your neighbors house
Like the one's I've shown you
Sometime's I get the feeling
That I've always known you

And I've been so damn sure
That I've been here before
I'll rise above my sorrows
And start today tomorrow.

Yeah

The rain's gone here come the swallows
Lets start today tomorrow.
