i was lonely
i was sad
i was feeling awfully bad
my heart was achin
but you came into my life and you made my future bright your eyes has spoken and they took the hurt away from me the rain that fell within my heart is swept away the clouds
break open and i see the day here by your side no more reason to hide my feelings inside
and ill gladly share each one of them if you,if you'll let me
light all around me
i feel it surround me shining down from above
this is love
