Much like starshine, these sounds will captivate,
they will soothe and destroy you "wide eyes".
They will soothe and destroy,
let this soothe and destroy.

Disassemble your insides with wide eyes.

You know the songs will be all that's left to save you from yourself.
But from what do you run?
But from what do you run?

We'll soothe and destroy,
soothe and destroy...
(Soothe and destroy, inside, wide eye)

Disassemble your insides with wide eyes.
With wide eyes...
With wide eyes...
With wide eyes...
With wide eyes...

There's so much left of me waiting to be found.
It's the same ties you've cut by which I am bound.
Beautiful angel, don't let me drown.
Beautiful angel, follow the sound of my voice.

Tears out of my eyes, they fall through the strings
everytime.
