Take me, take me, they yell in despair
The ocean waves will swallow all of us, all of this lost Eyes bulging wide at the end of the ropes and the victims can clearly see someone's all below Questioning, questioning can a hero be of help? I'll be right here waiting.
Answer me, answer me every hero to the help I'll be
right here waiting.
Right here waiting
Take me. Take me.
The boys shuts his eyes and his mother replies shes screaming out his name
As he swims below.
Questioning, questioning can a hero be of help? I'll be
right here waiting.
Answer me, answer me every hero to the help, I'll be
right here waiting.
I'm right here waiting
