Verse 1:

I'm on a roll motha' fucka so they after me,
Probably mad at me,
But you'll never see 'em catchin' me,
They're a travesty tryin' to imitate the majesty,
You catastrophe's will never stand up to a masterpiece.
I spit for hours so you kids should hit the showers son, I'm white as flour but I'll show you cowards how it's done,
When I grab the mic it's like a lightning strike, I cloud
the sun,
Watch the storm that's comin' that's exactly what you runnin' from.
I'm the beast that made you're priest say, Oh my god,
And i'mma spit this fire through you're fuckin' iPod,
And once it's in your brain it'll make you're fuckin' eyes
pop,
Ask me why? Spell Tony backwards.. Y not.
Now I've stepped in, I know what I am reppin',
Forgettin', the poeple that didn't give me their blessin',
So when I teach the lesson,
I'll make ya fuckin' head spin, So even Will Smith agrees,
I am legend.

Chorus:

They will try and say, I don't belong, I don't belong,
But I'm still here, I'm still here,
Yeah and they keep tellin' me, That I am wrong,
That I am wrong, But I don't care,
I don't care, I'mma be Here Forever

Verse 2:

I'm moving faster,
Calling me the master,
Losin' count of all the times I fuckin' lapped ya,
Aint lookin' back to reminisce on the past,
I'm spittin' so many verses they startin' to call me
pastor,
Still expected though, got a resurrected flow,
Started as a youngin' now I'm back and I aint messin'
bro,
Go and tell ya crew the cannibal comin' through,

Dismantling all you fools I plan to take 'em to school,
I'mma beast son,
Waitin' on a reason,
Why I shouldn't leave like LeBron did to Cleveland,
Really I don't need them as long as I'm breathin',
I'm just living life like everyday the weekend,
Mouth bleedin',
Lyrics knock ya teeth in,
No I don't believe in the haters when they speakin',
That's why I don't really give a fuck how I treat them,
Cut their water wings then I throw 'em in the deep end.
Yeah

Chorus:

They will try and say, I don't belong,
I don't belong, But I'm still here, I'm still here,
Yeah and they keep tellin' me, That I am wrong,
That I am wrong, But I don't care,
I don't care, I'mma be Here Forever

Verse 3:

So every night's new,
I got a bright view,
Slayin' the game already straight outta high school,
So when I say that my lyrics gonna excite you,
I mean that you have no fuckin' clue what I might do,
So take a hint, these rappers belligerent,
I'm showin' I'm different it's finally kickin' in,
Demandin' to be the champion,
Standin' with broken hands, but
I'm grabbin' the mic and rappin',
With every chance that I'm granted,
A gift, I've been given,
And homie you aint livin' till you got a crowd around you
here to listen to you spittin',
And haters gonn be dishin' out some plates of criticism,
The only way to ditch 'em,
Is to make your own decisions.
Yeah,
And nobody gonn be stoppin' me,
Showin' up to parties everybody wanna drop a beat,
Haters in the back just trembling by the thought of me,
Cause I'm in their heads, Like a lobotomy
Chorus:
They will try and say, I don't belong,
I don't belong, But I'm still here, I'm still here,
Yeah and they keep tellin' me, That I am wrong,
That I am wrong, But I don't care,
I don't care, I'mma be Here Forever
