Yo,
The root of all evil, can't always be seen,
cause it can hide up inside your mind so please, Pardon me, if you thinking it's hard to believe that few people will ever stop from charging a fee.
She want that new necklace with diamonds and beads,
Instead she leaves, cause she got a daughter to feed,
And when she grows up mamma gonn' talk about greed, and how it's strong enough to drop a country to its knees
We all wanna have a full wallet, and when you do, It's funny how paper can change your mood, but you never see a dude in a dress suit drop a cent to the less fortunate, just so they can get food.
Remember when you was a kid and the world was so big?
Look up to the sun and see a grin,
and all he sayin' is eat your Raisin Bran,
I could be crazy but I don't really understand.
How can it be?
It's false hope when the kids that we teach, are thinkin' it's easy to reach, the dreams that we seek,
Well I have seen it and I can see why majority weakens
, I'm on the floor and I'm bleedin', I can't ignore what I'm feelin', But I just..
Chorus:
Can't stop gotta fight through the pain, Now let's go,
Don't wait for change, Every cut made is a step you
take,
So keep steppin' through, You're Invincible.
Verse 2:
I run away, to sunny days, some other place.
The trouble made by me it makes my stomach ache,
I never told you all this, so just let me explain,
I ripped a hole in my chest, put my heart on a plate, and gave it to you, but I guess that was just a mistake, You picked it up and fuckin' chucked it right back at my face,
I'm sick of shade,

Lookin' for brighter days, I gotta leave it behind me,
Won't carry it to my grave, I'm carryin' all this weight, and uh..

I think a screw's loose.

Thought I could tie you up, so I would never lose you, Don't wanna lock you in the trunk, like Eminem, But then again, Maybe it would help to be better friends,

Eh,

Maybe I should think it over, But everytime
I think about you everything gets colder, Don't you know that you used to be so warm,
Now it's like a snow storm, All I ever get's a cold shoulder.

Damn.

Chorus:

Can't stop gotta fight through the pain, Now let's go,
Don't wait for change, Every cut made is a step you
take,

So keep steppin' through, You're Invincible

Bridge:

You left me breathless, Sittin' in a pool of blood, I'm lucky friends had the decency to pull me up,
Unscathed but pained from lacerations,
Never gonn' see me waitin', I'm sprintin' until I make it, cause I..

Chorus:

Can't stop gotta fight through the pain, Now let's go,
Don't wait for change, Every cut made is a step you
take,

So keep steppin' through, You're Invincible

Outro:

You know, we all got problems, but like they say, the strong survive, right? And I aint taking this for granted,
And you won't be taking this from me. Mikey B, and
