Verse 1:

I think I feel a cold wind, Blowin' in from both ends,
I broke in quick and stole pens, Let the ink soak in,
Dope doesn't even come close when, I'm zoned in,
Like your wife and your girlfriend, I don't blend.
Crowd yellin' to choke him, The rope 'round my throat, then the floorboard opened, But just then, Ya'll stopped the commotion, I rose up, Brushed the dust off,
and told them, You wanna stop me?
You and what fuckin' army, Watch me eat the hearts of guards and keep marching, I can see,
Why it's like I aint part of society,
I get caught in my mind and think everybody gonn' lie
to me, Yeah,
But now I got the town to chase me,
No one gonna downgrade me, I'm ground-breaking,
Never changing a damn thing,
If they tryna save me I'mma have to go Casey Anthony on you babies.

Chorus:

I will crawl, I will walk, I will run to the light,
I will fall, I will bruise,
I'll have nothing left to lose,
You will see me let go of, All that you know,
Believe me, Mark My Words, and believe me..

Verse 2:

It's that spectacular vernacular, Flip you like a spatula, I've had it with flamin' faggots sayin' I won't amount to none,
Down to run, Every beat like it's gonn' be my last one,
Pass one, Hit it then lights, camera, action.
I've lost track of raps up in my trash,
I scribble 'em out of vision then pick up another pad,
I'm back at it,
Addicted to rap like crack addicts addicted to crack
, Ya man perfectin' his craft. I'm up, off of sabbatical,
Rather be a battering ram smashing your clavicle,
Eatin' every rapper who can't stand with the cannibal,
They be panacking after it, Like they spazzin' from adderal,

Focus, Hold this drink, While I unload this,
Whole clip, 'Fore you know it,
My lyrics hittin' you quick like a closed fist,
They sayin' I'm dope as dope gets,
I just hope this road I chose don't end, Ever.

Chorus:

I will crawl, I will walk, I will run to the light,
I will fall, I will bruise,
I'll have nothing left to lose,
You will see me let go of, All that you know, Believe me,
Mark My Words, and believe me..

Bridge:

Even though nobody even know who I am,
I'mma take off homie I got a flight plan,
Nobody spit it as fuckin' sick as I can,
And I be givin' all of my love to my fans, So I'm, Raising up my hands,
For everyone in the stands, Cuz you the reason I'm happy,
You the reason I'm glad, see, Nobody's givin' chances, Take what you got for granted, I'mma grab all my bags,
and Blast off this fuckin' planet.

Chorus:

I will crawl, I will walk, I will run to the light, I will fall,
I will bruise, I'll have nothing left to lose,
You will see me let go of, All that you know, Believe me,
Mark My Words, and believe me..
