Chorus:

So I can walk through the valley of death, outshine the sun
without breaking a sweat,
Drop rhymes for fun and make haters regret, spitting
'til the bars break then it's on to the next,
Yeah I can walk through the valley of death, outshine the sun
without breaking a sweat,
Drop rhymes for fun and make haters regret, spitting
'til the bars break then it's on to the next.

Verse 1:

I'm stepping in,
Think it's time to begin,
Tell me I'm wrong to write the lyrics cause the shade of my skin,
But when I tear the world to pieces and consistently win,
How can you say I'm less that greatness cause I look different,

Don't try to fight it,
Cause the torch is ignited,
This lyricism that I'm bringing is already provided,
And it's been sitting here inside me ever since I could write it,
So let me dedicate these rhymes to all the haters that hiding,
It's understandable,
The ignorant standing cold,
Out in the rain while I am so hot that I'm flammable,
It's Tony C and the c is for cannibal,
Jaws hit the ground like the floor demanding your mandible,
It aint specific,
When I spit its terrific,
And scientific these scientists say my lyrics horrific,
Non explicit is how I spit it,
See I'm switching the vision,
I got these haters all twitching from the demolition I'm spitting,

Chorus:

So I can walk through the valley of death,
outshine the sun without breaking a sweat,
Drop rhymes for fun and make haters regret,
spitting 'til the bars break then it's on to the next,
Yeah I can walk through the valley of death,
outshine the sun without breaking a sweat,
Drop rhymes for fun and make haters regret,
spitting 'til the bars break then it's on to the next.

Verse 2:

I'm blasting off to the moon I can fly,
The sky is where I'm heading,
My rhymes are a surprise,
And those who are forgetting,
My eyes see through the lies,
And pressure cannot affect me,
Immune to psi,
They saying that I'm too young to be better than,
All these rappers on the track making millions,
But none of them expect the swag that I carry in,
See I'm a rookie but I'm spitting like a veteran,
Now I'm at a full sprint and I'm never stopping,
Watching, all the doubters sit back with jaws dropping,
Coppin, all of my swag but they've all forgotten,
That I'm finishing up before these haters can clock in,
yea
I put it all on the line,
Like Charlie with cocaine or Kobe in crunch time, I shine like the moons face while sipping on moonshine,
It's one step for man but a leap for mankind

Chorus:

So I can walk through the valley of death,
outshine the sun without breaking a sweat,
Drop rhymes for fun and make haters regret,
spitting 'til the bars break then it's on to the next,
Yeah I can walk through the valley of death,
outshine the sun without breaking a sweat,
Drop rhymes for fun and make haters regret,
spitting 'til the bars break then it's on to the next.
