

Sleepy Jackson, The "Rain Falls For Wind"

I've been drinking and I've been thinking of you
Now I know,
I know the snow will let me know,
I been trying
but I've been lying to you,
Now I know,
I know the time will get me through.

But any time I let you know it's just a time to let me know what it's all about

Rain falls for wind
You're only ever on my mind
Rain falls for wind
You're only ever on my mind

I've been drinking
and I've been thinking of you
Now I know,
I know the snow will let me know,

Rain falls for wind
You're only ever on my mind
Rain falls for wind
You're only ever on my mind
Rain falls for wind
You're only ever on my mind
You never ever have the time
When I see you smile

Rain falls for wind
You're only ever on my mind
You never ever have the time
When I see you smile
