The world today is a sad sad place
The dirty and the dumb are scrutinizing our race
We're overrun with meaningless lies
They sewed our mouths shut and stole our eyes
Denial is the modern day black death
Look at all the empty people sit in content
See through this opaque fake disguise
Tear that blindfold from your eyes...

We're existing
We're the only real thing left
In this synthetic life
We're existing
In this synthetic life

Well I do know it's the media to blame
They turned the truth into a fucked up game
Fighting for the truth when it's throat deep in distractions
Break away with my sanity-seeking faction
Dumbed down and supersized our generation
I don't wanna live in alienation
Try to deny this you honestly can't
It's way too real, sad and true

We're existing
In this synthetic life
We're existing
In this synthetic life

See through this opaque fake disguise
Tear that blindfold from your eyes
See through this opaque fake disguise
Tear that blindfold from your eyes
See through this opaque fake disguise
Tear that blindfold from your eyes
See through this opaque fake disguise
Tear that blindfold from your eyes

FIGHT THE IMAGE
FIGHT THE IMAGE
YOU JUST CAN'T FIGHT IT

We're existing
In this synthetic life
We're existing
In this synthetic life
We're existing
In this synthetic life
We're existing
In this synthetic life
