Welcome to my exhibition, welcome to my hell, upon the altar lies my human sacrifice, distorted images I hunt to find.

[Chorus]

One final body to finish up the artwork, violent art, the darker part.

New murder, new painting, it never gets done, heavy
murders - a godly work
of art.

Colors created by blood, murder - I'm in it for the art,
my sick brain eats me.

I'm feeding it with pain, my treasures I hide, but from myself I cannot run.

[Chorus x2]

One final body to finish up the artwork, violent art, the
darker part.

New murder, new painting, it never gets done, heavy
murders - a godly work
of art.
