im walking on towns and you know, know what i mean all the visions keep my eyes too far from you got to tell you now... in any way, this is the only way going up down and i know we've trying to wise, to wise and a call-in(?) me right to your home gotya gotya gotya all day x2 in miamis(?) bitches in mine end of disturb your a kind i'm blind

i'm just a lonely child, waiting on others people's faith x4

tell me oh now, tell me now what am i supposed to do with this heart of mine starts to cry starts to cryyyy

oh babe please coming up gotta tell you what you know it doesnt sound much like anything you do starring at me we are all different we are all changing we're getting round like you show one stably unstable mind cause out of me

i'm just a lonely child, waiting on others people's faith
x3
i'm just a lonely child, waiting on people's faith but me i'm a lot different so ? and single and i just ? so well that it hurts inside just ? so well that hurts inside gotta get throught gotta get past me can i get throught can i get past me

x4
