Smart girls don't go playing too close to the edge
A smart girl wouldn't be here sitting on your bed
But you captured my attention like pretty flashing lights
And too late I discovered the flash was dynamite

Well I can't blame you completely for taking what I gave
You didn't want fulfilling. Just a piece of cake.

Well, I'm taking it hard, taking it hard
Cos you're breaking my heart and you know you are
Yeah, I'm taking it hard, I'm taking it hard
Cos you're breaking my heart and you know you are

Yeah you're breaking my heart
And I knew that you would
I got into your car cos the ride was so good
Gonna get me to jump now baby
Cos you're breaking my heart now baby, baby, baby

I knew what was coming long before tonight
The rumble of rejection then the lightning strikes
Humiliating tears fall that hasn't let up yet
When I think it has blown over I wind up soaking wet

It must have been so easy - taking candy from a kid
Without a guilty conscience for damage that you did

Well, I'm taking it hard, taking it hard
Cos you're breaking my heart and you know you are
Yeah, I'm taking it hard, I'm taking it hard
Cos you're breaking my heart and I know you are

Yeah you're breaking my heart
And I knew that you would
I got into your car cos the ride was so good
Gonna get me to jump now baby
Cos you're breaking my heart now baby, baby, baby

(You're breaking my heart, breaking, breaking my heart)

Yeah you're breaking my heart
And I knew that you would
I got into your car cos the ride was so good
Gonna get me to jump now baby
Cos you're breaking my heart now baby

Yeah you're breaking my heart
And I knew that you would
I got into your car cos the ride was so good
Gonna get me to jump now baby
Cos you're breaking my heart now baby, baby, baby

Yeah, you're breaking my heart
Yeah, you're breaking my heart
