It's in the way you drink your coffee
And how you have faith in me
And you love your cameras and you tell me that I'm good enough Boy, you bobber up my heart.

And all the things that I used to be afraid
of
Suddenly it all disappear

And you remain my most favourite thing
and everywhere I go you're here with me
and you remain my most favourite thing
and all the time I keep you near me

The way you look out of the window
And you stay because you know It wasn't your intention but you can't help but to crash in Like the way I've been waiting for.

And all the things that I used to be afraid
Suddenly it all disappear

And you remain my most favourite thing
and everywhere I go you're here with me
and you remain my most favourite thing
and all the time I keep you near me

When I feel like the world has turned its back on me when I feel all alone and I'm left with nobody Oh, when people wanted me to be somebody else
But you love me completely.

And you remain my most favourite thing
and everywhere I go you're here with me
and all the time I keep you near me

And you remain my most favourite thing
and everywhere I go you're here with me

and all the time I keep you near me
and all the time I keep you near me
