I am sensing that a storm is coming
They calling me out to play
Got a feeling I'm gonna win it
They think that I don't have game
I know before I've had a few falls
I've got dirt all of my face
Baby today I'm gonna win it
You gonna remember my name
You gonna remember my name
You gonna remember my name
I've got a feeling
You gonna remember my name

[Chorus:]

Are you gonna bring me down
Trying to bring me down again
Are you gonna bring me down
Trying to bring me down again
I know [x7]
You gonna remember my name

I am sensed a storm is coming
They calling you out to play
And when you can feel
Your heart is racing
You keeping up with the pace
And even though you have failed before
You know you will find the way
Baby today you gonna win it
They gonna remember your name
They gonna remember your name
You gonna remember my name
I've got a feeling
You gonna remember my name
[Repeat Chorus x2]
