Terrified I stood before the crowd shown up by the teachers of the law who caught me in adultery

He ignored what they said wrote something on the ground not impressed by their words their questioning

I could feel their hate and their desire to sentence me but He just held the mirror up and brought them off the chase

He ignored what they said
their questioning at all after a while He said "if anyone of you is without sin let him be the first to throw a stone" those who heard went away upset about His words not condemned He removed my fear and acquitted me

He ignored what they said
