Featuring Future

(Intro)

You put me in a trance
Girl you put me in a-
You put me in a trance
Girl you put me in a trance
Girl you put me in a trance
And I don't understand what happened to me girl
I just wanna be one of your friends
And I don't have to hug you
Long as I get to hold your hand
And I'm trying to figure out what it is Maybe it's the way you stand
You got me in a trance
Girl you got me in a trance
Yeah you got me in a trance
I don't know what got into me

(Verse 1 : Future)

Ever since I seen you think you put me out my misery
I'm not concerned with your companion or your history Cause any time when we're together, I feel the chemistry
I touch your hand, I touch your heart I know I'ma touch your mind
You can't deny the feeling that you're feeling when it's right
I tried to fight it, tried to hide it, swear I tried denying it Don't have to be with you girl I just wanna stand beside you
You compliment my style, you compliment my whole entire
You motivate me in so many ways, I keep on grinding
You shining like a star, you looking like some real diamonds
The way you make me feel I wanna buy you real
diamonds

(Hook)

Hey, you put me in a trance, you put me in a

You put me in a trance
You put me in a trance, boy you put me in a trance
You put me in a trance
And I don't understand what it happened to me
I just wanna be one of your friends
And when I put it on you, bet I make you come again

(Verse 2 : Future)

She got too much damn potential
She could be the valuest thing ever touched this earth
If she keep me on her tempo
She pray for me every single day even when she not in church
I need a friend like you, I just wanna win for you
You have this story about yourself that seems to jump on people
And if you have a man, he would be a fool to leave you
I'm like your biggest fan when I met you how couldn't help but fiend ya
I know I rap but for you, I'd be an R&B Singer
I know I trap, I take that dirty money and I clean them
And it ain't this about me girl you know we need us
You not a cheater, but sometimes the way I need ya
I haven't seen in you in some weeks
It's been so hard in through these days
And if you ever feeling weak, let's go somewhere & run away
And if you ever feeling weak, I make you stronger everyday
And I just wanna see you smile, and I'm willing do whatever it go take

(Hook)

Hey, you put me in a trance, you put me in a
You put me in a trance
You put me in a trance, boy you put me in a trance
You put me in a trance
And I don't understand what it happened to me
I just wanna be one of your friends
And when I put it on you, bet I make you come again
