its your favorite song, so turn it up.

imagine me pullin your hair grippin on the headboard. ooh ohh ohhh ohh
i can imagine you over here from the counter to the kitchen floor cuz i got everything you need and im the one you should count on girl i wanna be the one, the one that put it down on you i mean baby, i dont think they know what im talkin bout break it down

wanna put it down, i wanna put it down.

patron is all we need to put it down girl you and me and now you got me all woozy feelin your booty my shawty know she the one girl give it to the one, only one for me tell me what i gotta do just to make you my girl gotta make you my girl
take you round the world spend up all my dough give you everything you want
gotta keep you in my world its your favorite song, so turn it up(x4) i walk inside the club lookin for my one and only and shawty on me like ima put it down on you and now we at the party im all over her body head it up to my bedroom cuz you girl you know that

now you got me all boosie feelin your booty
my shawty know she the one girl give it to the one, only one or me tell me what i gotta do

tryna keep you in my world
