Tell me, can my eyes betray me?
Do they say how happy I feel
When no one takes the seat beside me
On the bus and make a fuss?
Then I?m easy

To go away, take a train, go astray
Disappear into the unknown
To a place where you?re always
All alone

Take a look into my eyes
2000 light-years of darkness
Take a look into my eyes
200 miles of black woods

Take a look into my eyes
2000 light-years of darkness
You?ll see my eyes, your eyes
Father and son

Our thoughts will be one
Connected in souls
Together at last
In the same black hole

One day you won?t know my name
You will go and not come back again
I assume it will bring me great pain
But at least I?ll know where you?re staying

?Cause you and I
Got a way to go astray
Disappear into the unknown
To a place where we?re always all alone

Take a look into my eyes
2000 light-years of darkness
Take a look into my eyes
200 miles of black woods

Take a look into my eyes

2000 light-years of darkness
You?ll see my eyes, your eyes
Father and son

Our thoughts will be one
Connected in souls
Together at last
In the same black hole

In my eyes, in your eyes
In our 2000 light-years of darkness
In my eyes, in your eyes
In our 2000 light-years of darkness
