So lets not forget today
And make sure these mistakes stay made
And carry on accordingly
These scars will act as strings
Forever reminding me

Dont say anything
Your mouth is vile your words are empty
And your heart it wont permit me
To fix what we have done
Give you what you want
We both know where you belong

The cheap shots that we take
Are fired with accuracy
They rule out a recovery
The wounds that will remain
Will heal eventually
Just wait

Choking back tears
Making false promises
This will make me stronger
Ill find someone who understands
Like she never ever did
But she did
And Id kill for her kiss
But I paid for my sins
And she was strong enough to end it
So heres to rock bottom
Going down with the ship

So say goodbye
And let it all out tonight

These scars that line the surface of my heart
Will be the string around my finger
Reminding me how much this hurts
