Chorus

I'm giving up, on everything because you messed me
up,
Don't know how much you screwed it up, you never listen,
That's just to bad.

(Yung Prince)

I seen a lot of crazy thangs in my life time
I swear I'm so confused I'm not up in my right mind
I only speak the truth so lyrics they recite mines
A lot of people doubted me they said I wouldn't shineunn
Same year just a different story
All the chicks from back then
Now they all adore me
Now I sign my own checks and I'm my own boss
They all trying to be my friend
At all cost
Yeah - I can't tell who is Real or fake
That's why I'm stingy with whatever I get up on my plate
Show no emotions keep a blank face
The world is cold but you know you gotta
Keep the faith
Yeah- but money anit everythang
Since I got a lot of it, it changed everythang
Family and even friends that I thought were true
I guess I'm all alone, I stll don't have a clue

Chorus

I'm giving up, on everything because you messed me
up,
Don't know how much you screwed it up, you never
listen,
That's just to bad.
