It's been so long since I've seen you
I miss the way you look when you laughed
The nights that we shared
Expressing how much we cared
The silent walks we took holding hands
If I could just hold you and touch you
But I know things would never be the same

So I'll just say goodbye again
Keep our memories by my side
So I'll just say goodbye again
In time I'll come back to you and say hello my friend

I've often wondered how things might have been
If I was just there a bit more do you hold me within (within)
Has the candle burned empty
Or is there a flame left for me (for me)
If I could just show you the life that you've given (life that you've given)
But I know you'll never be the same

So I'll just say goodbye again
Keep our memories by my side
So I'll just say goodbye again
In time I'll come back to you and say hello my friend

Bridge:
Oh how's a person to feel
When the breath of life has stopped for all time
And how's an angel to feel
When the air is all the touch I can find

So I'll just say goodbye again
Keep our memories by my side
So I'll just say goodbye again
In time I'll come back to you and say hello my friend

So I'll just say goodbye again
And keep our memories by my side
So I'll just say goodbye again

In time I'll come back to you and say I love you my friend...
My friend...
