Shortie you're a millionaire I like the way you talk
Or it could be your hair or it could the way that you walk
That makes me stop and stare
Do you be shopping there we'll make love in the air
I do not know what on the low
She's a millionaire I like the way you talk
Or It could be your hair or it could the way that you walk
That makes me stop and stare
Do you be shopping there we'll make love in the air
I do not know what on the low
She's a millionaire

And that right there's a compliment
Always dressing different never on some combinish
Yea you know I stay up on my fly thing
Rims bigger than yours guess it's a guy thing
Well she walks around like she's worth a mill
You should wear a vest caus she's always dressed to kill
I know she sounds like the perfect chick
Like a genie in the bottle but she's worth the wish

Shortie you're a millionaire I like the way you talk
Or it could be your hair or it could the way that you walk
That makes me stop and stare
Do you be shopping there we'll make love in the air
I do not know what on the low
Shortie you're a millionaire I like the way you talk
Or it could be your hair or it could the way that you walk
That makes me stop and stare
Do you be shopping there we'll make love in the air
I do not know what on the low
She's a millionaire

Excuse me when I make this statement
If he ain't telling her she bad she probably think you hatin
So you should probably get your ish together on a 5 star ship
Will probably suck And better Nahh she ain't used to all that dining crap she's into major leagues

She don't like the mighty cats
Well I guess that's how the story goes but I'd've dated a lot of em so the story's old
So you should try to keep her high class
If he ain't got no Lamborghini I'll bet she'll pass well
You should try to keep her high class
If he ain't got no Lamborghini I'll bet she'll pass

Shortie you're a millionaire I like the way you talk
Or it could be your hair or it could be the way that you walk
That makes me stop and stare
Do you be shopping there we'll make love in the air
I do not know what on the low
She's a millionaire I like the way you talk
Or it could be your hair or it could be the way that you walk
That makes me stop and stare
Do you be shopping there we'll make love in the air
I do not know what on the low

She's a millionaire
