If there's tomorrow
I'll beg, steal and borrow
With you

I'll catch you like sunshine
And find a place to hide
With you

I'll change like a leaf
Stand tall like a tree
With you

I'll drip like the seas
And buzz like the bees
With you

But every day
You turn away
And sink back into your blue
But the ways made a wage
And whistled and sang
To the tune

If there's tomorrow
I'll beg, steal and borrow
With you

I'll plus minus times
Subtract and divide
With you

But every day
You turn away
And sink back into your blue
But the ways made a wage
And whistled and sang
To the tune

Theo and June
