There's a red brick in a white wall
Somebody's brush forgot to paint
So it sits there all alone
Like a hopeful sinner Who finally goes to church she don't sit among the Christians Cause she questions her own worth Oh she's lonely

(chorus)

Lonely like the way you left me Nothing I know's gonna get me through, losing you the worst of loves analogies are tangled up inside of me but the only one that brings me to my knees

Is Lonely

There's a man in his own prison with a crime nobody knows He has sentenced himself to life with no pardon or parole

Oh he's lonely

(repeat chorus|solo|repeat Chorus)

I'm a red brick in a white wall

Somebody's brush forgot to paint

Lonely
