You will need me
You, you will make it on your own
I'll be there for you
I will watch your every move
I was born to guide you through your life
It is my destiny

Stay here right by my side
I will look after you whatever you do
Stay here, I'll help you survive
I will watch over you 'til the day that I die

Hey, take my hand
You can trust in me you'll see
Believe in what I say
And you don't have to be afraid
I was born to guide you through your life
It is my destiny

Stay here right by my side
I will look after you whatever you do
Stay here, I'll help you survive
I will watch over you 'til the day that I die

Stay here right by my side (right by my side)
I will look after you whatever you do (whatever you do)
Stay here, I'll help you survive (help you survive)
I will watch over you 'til the day that I die

Every word I say to you is true
I was chosen to watch over you
Every word I say to you is true
I was chosen to watch over you
