"Hollow"

Hide and seek, roundabout, fragile times
Playing games, acting strange, fearful mime
Lost and misunderstood, too much talk
Like two worlds, him and you

Your eyes they show you love him
He's lost for words again
A glimpse of timeless being
Can fill the hollow man

Lessons learned long ago, old and stale
Too afraid, no mistakes, cannot fail
Trust and joy, bound and kept on low flame
Love is his way out

Your eyes they show you love him
He's lost for words again
A glimpse of timeless being
Can fill the hollow man

You smile and touch his fingers
A spark that can ignite
The beautiful that lingers
Just barely out of sight
