"Who Are You?"

Thrown into time and space ages ago
Shut down access to grace and to flow
Traps and mirrors you never understood
A flight from the bad, a quest for the good
Who are you, who are you ?
Who are you, who are you ?

The slightest of hunches, is there meaning in this?
Who gets to hand out your terror or bliss?
The ocean of experience that countless lifetimes bring
A faint voice in your mind, to whom is all this happening?
Who are you, who are you ?
Who are you, who are you ?

Who is the decider, does a doer appear?
Unfazed by your thoughts and not bothered by fear
Whose job to make planets circling the sun
To steer you eternally back towards the one
Who are you, who are you ?
Who are you, who are you ?
Who are you, who are you ?
Who are you, who are you ?

Thrown into time and space ages ago
Shut down access to grace and to flow
Traps and mirrors you never understood

The slightest of hunches, is there meaning in this?
