i'm done doing you undone baby we're through giving up perfection is what i do so take it all out on me righteous i am, i'm gonna shut my mouth could you look sweet for me now you little worm

oh god you gonna miss me when i'm gone take your dirty hands off me so i can lay my dirtier hands on you oh go on curse the one beside you it's just another way to hold you back you don't want his skinny arms around you but it's just another way to hold you back you know it's just another way to hold you back i'm sick of being me, i'm sick of being me emotional flatline is why i leave i'm ... your back that trashy little fake is gonna take them home/all this dirty ballad boy is making promises but never calls is gonna bring the situation to a fall but i'm done doing you undone

so go on curse the one beside you
it's just another way to hold you back
it's just another way to hold you back
