it's a phase, and i hope that it will pass i've been wearing me down so hard lately i'm turning in a way and know, that this man with this ugly grin has been standing outside my door and wants me to let him in he wants to get under my skin just get somebody on the side and the ... you now, and i know i'm to ignorant to try, but i'm holding up my hands as the guilty as accused, as i leave you alone tonight for a while, i've been living by my self as a matter of fact i was alone long before i had a thing with death/had to py my debt when you look at this pile of skin and bones can you see ... resemble, do you wanna let him know just turning you on and ...

and the ... you now, and i know

anyway
wasting a lot of time looking for somebody to shelter me as i hit the ground but i don't have the nerve to shout it out i'm counting on my brothers to come and help me out but i'm standing alone with...

and the ... you now, and i know
i'm to ignorant to try, but i'm holding up my hands as the guilty and the new, as i leave you alone tonight
