Look at the rain and look at the stars tonight

All fallin' down on me

See them tumble through my door

I look at your face

The light is in your eyes

And there's something there I need

I long to hold a little more

Moonlight lady, let me in

Take me in your arms again

I'm Lost in trouble here tonight

Moonlight lady, hold my hands

And let me know you understand

When I say I need a friend

Stay here with me till the end

Deep in the heart of nowhere

I'm still on the lookout for a sign

That there's an answer in the cards

The more apart, the more I need you at my side

To shine the light you have

To guide me through the stars

Stay here with me till the end
