And the Wind cried
Seeing Fire in the light
The stars mourned
The tragedy of darkest times
Forget it not, forget it not

Forgotten times, so long ago
Our sisters' story we must know
Must not forget the holocaust
In the name of the Lord
Convicted without trial, our sisters
They were burned at the stakes

And the Earth cried
Seeing all Her daughters die
The Moon mourned
The tragedy of evil times
Forget it not, forget it not

When evil came, so long ago
They took the women, you must know
Accused them of satanic deeds
All they did was fear the unknown
Nine million souls were passed on
They were burned at the stakes

And the Sun cried
Seeing all His daughters die
The Water mourned
The tragedy of darkest times
Forget it not, forget it not

It's history, so long ago
The memory stays, as we all know
Must not forget the holocaust
In the name of the God
Justifying murder of the women
Who they burned at the stakes

(Blessed be, daughters of Earth)

And the sisters cried
Holding hands, engulfed by flames
So remember all
The tragedies of evil times
Forget it not, forget it not

And the Wind cried
Seeing Fire in the light
The stars mourned
The tragedy of darkest times
Forget it not, forget it not

And the Sun cried
Seeing all His daughters die
The Water mourned
The tragedy of darkest times
Forget it not, forget it not

And the Earth cried
Seeing all Her daughters die
The Moon mourned
The tragedy of evil times
Forget it not, forget it not
