(Michael Trestl)

It was a foggy night on the graveyard
A lonely man goes alone on the graveyard
He sees an open grave on the grave yard
But no dead man in it
Is a time to live and a time to die when it's time to die
beware
Zombies alive
Zombies alive
He goes back to his office
There was no plan for the open grave
Is a time to live and a time to die when it's time to die
beware
Zombies alive
Zombies alive
He goes back to the open grave
But there waited two zombies.....
Is a time to live and a time to die when it's time to die
beware
Zombies alive
Zombies alive
Zombies alive
Zombies alive
