[Z-Ro]

I don't know why my life ain't stable, so many up's and down's

It make a nigga dizzy, trying to keep his feet on the ground

Feeling this pain daily, too many times a day

Just wanna live, not necessarily shine today

Losing my mind today, I can't keep the tears from dripping

Thankful for Eugene my nigga, for residency flipping

Ran a car into my own shit, shouldn't I be glad

To be like Joe, but have to lose everything 'fore I get it back

I get free game, I stacks my cars my clothes

But my mama will never scratch my back, before I go to sleep no more

I'm feeling crazy, just can't find the slack, but fuck

I can't move I know I'm not sleeping, I'm woke the devil's riding my back

I try to shake him, but he on me

Therefor my attitude is rude, fuck friends leaving me for lonely

Sometimes I feel like the high, is my only companion

So I stay running the drugs, looking for understanding

[Hook - 2x]

I don't really wanna die, just need a change of scenery

It don't matter where I go, long as I'm blazing greenery

Blowing my wig back, trying to deal with stress

So I don't go crazy, and bandon me from people to rest

[Cl'Che]

I don't really wanna go, that's why I ask Lord bless my soul

Had to stop hanging with hoes, even some my kin folk

It's bad for my brain, bad for my blood, bad for my people

That I wanted to show love, see cause love's been lost

That's why I blaze up greenery, and charge it to the cost

Baby I feel your pain, like when the tears come down like rain drops

And it don't stop, motherfuckers keep pulling the same spot
Trying to make you let loose, until you drop Them off the scenery, doing something crazy Wouldn't have to go through this shit, ain't that was another place to be That's why I ride behind you a hundred percent, my nigga it's Cl'Che
I smoke with you ride with you, make sure you make it through the day
Too much hate make a chick wanna vacate, off the scene
Get a lil stash live out your dream ha, feel what I mean Relieves the stress, remember you blessed smoke on Live on and move on my nigga, I'm in your zone

[Hook - 2x]

[Z-Ro]

Seems like I was looking for love, in the wrong place Attempting to put a smile, on a long face
I couldn't beat it, the D.A. had a strong case
So I might ready to burst this, for a long stay Back at the block after 2 and a half, thinking my partnas got shit to show me But they bout they paper capping, acting like they don't know me
Thangs done changed, I see I'm out here on my own Got fronted a couple of packs, and glad I'm all night long
But fellas started to get jealous, cause I grinded so much
I wouldn't of knew he had a beam, if he didn't shine it so much
So when he came walking up on me, I just capped and let it go See I'm nervous by nature, that means I'm dumping on you hoes
There was people looking for me, plus I'm ducking the vice
On top of that, my people treat me like a thief in the night
Sometimes I feel like my high, is my only companion
So I stay running the drugs, looking for understanding

[Hook - 2x]
