Woah. S.O.P. Jamaica. Dr. Dizzle.

(Chorus)

Jesus, you're worthy
Every day you've shown me, now I see
So it's you I'm thinking of, it you just write it out
So ungettable
(X2)

May he breathe what you want to, see what you want to
It's more than a need when I feel that want you
I cannot contain that it's you that I want to Jehovah, Jireh, the King, there is one True
I praise to be on you, praise to be one you
With Jesus Christ, I'm cool not to long to
I can't see me without life when I'm in you
I will hold you for life, ally on to, I'm in to

Chorus

[Hey, I my name is Sean. Yeah. This is confessions of the soul.]

Yo, can I got needs, I ain't talking paper
I ain't talking Gucci, I ain't talking Jacob
I need more than ice and I get my kanko
I'm drowning in guilt, guess I need a savior, man
Look homie, I need grace
'Cuz the scrolls are on me like a high speed chase
Yes, I need peace, I know it sounds bizarre
But I've found that everything I need, you are

Chorus

With the armour, devil haffi tek weh himself
You know 'bout the grave, him make himself
Jesus Chirst alone worthy
And anybody else na care for lick on me
And mi na care who come after
'Cuz we healed to the world of the master
I need na response with a nobody
'Cuz Jesus alone me a talk for

Chorus

[Yeah! Ha. Father God, you're worthy. We just want to lift you up right here. Uh. Yo.]

Get crazy, hands lifted up, get 'em up, and voices raised

Praise like there's not tomorrow, no turning back 'cuz my choice is made

I praise 'cuz you know my life, back then it could have been faded

I praise 'cuz for my good deeds, I was compensated
I don't care what time a the day it is, I' a do this right now

Cuz I don't praise only for the morning time, or when it's lights out

A feeling I can't contain, I' on the verge now

Gotta satisfy my praise hormones, I'e got the urge now

Chorus
