I open my eyes as this brand new day arrives Gotta shake off this disguise that I've been wearing Gonna turn myself about, and put aside the doubts Cast dejection out and get my bearings

Times are changing in my life, you know that I'm not stopping Gonna reach for the sky, never thinking what I might have left behind
So much I can achieve
I got the world shaking in its shoes, dreams are made for living
And it's time to choose, you can't have no misgivings
When there's nothing to lose
It's time to believe

People come and go, some you'll never know
But some can help you grow
And fly like a bird
Friends and family, mean so much to me
They always help me see
The right way forward

stopping
Gonna reach for the sky, never thinking what I might
have left behind
So much I can achieve
I got the world shaking in its shoes, dreams are made
for living
And it's time to choose, you can't have no misgivings
When there's nothing to lose
It's time to believe
